

Covenant Christian High School (Indianapolis) seeks a committed Christian educator to fill a full-time, maternity leave Spanish 1 & 3 position from January 18 to March 19 of 2021.

Candidates should be passionate about the Spanish language, literature, and various Latin American and Spanish cultures and clearly show a desire to share that love with a diverse group of teenage students. A bachelor's or master's degree in Spanish with an education track is preferred. Capacity to conduct courses entirely in Spanish is essential. Ideal applicants will be equipped to teach using both online and traditional methods and have global perspectives developed through study abroad.

Candidates should be highly organized and capable of implementing program ideas in creative and effective ways. Candidates should be able to work closely with other staff, especially the current Spanish 1 & 3 teacher, Academic Dean, and Academic Advisors. The successful candidate will be able to engage, nurture, and help students develop critical reading and analytical writing skills that move students successfully toward end of year assessments. Additionally, candidates should be able to build a quick rapport with parents and students.

Candidates should apply by November 20 and plan to begin some in-class training in early January, during our two week JTerm.
